C.C. and Duke Ensell and The Heritage Society invite you to celebrate Texas Independence Day with Justice Ken Wise and Nina Hendee with wonderful wine, food, and stories centered on the amazing collection of artifacts at Taste of Texas.

"We live in a state with a wonderfully unique history, and we have built a stunning collection of rare Texana historical documents and artifacts in our restaurant. I give history tours for fourth graders almost every school day, and we host Saturday morning history talks. We have collected a world-class Texas history museum, hosted over five hundred thousand Texas school children on Texas History Tours, and welcomed countless foreign guests who have claimed their visit here was the highlight of their trip. Texas is an incredible place, a land rich in heritage, and opportunity for everyone. I hope you'll visit and fall in love all over again with our unique state." ---- Nina Hendee, Taste of Texas Proprietor
